What is Emergency Fostering?

Every week in Birmingham, children and young people are brought into care because of an emergency situation. This could be at any time of the day or night, and often the children will come to you in a distressed state and with few, if any, belongings.

Requirements

- Kind, caring, empathetic and patient
- Adaptable, organised, practical and resilient
- Experience of working with children and young people particularly in stressful and / or demanding situations
- A spare bedroom for the child or young person to use

Emergency fostering can be very demanding, which is why you will be able to take up to 8 weeks paid leave every year. Emergency Foster Carers are also paid very generous allowances*, even when not caring for any children.
